APPLY FOR A CERTIFICATE OF OCCUPANCY (C OF O)

with the DC Department of Buildings (DOB)

Sign in with Access DC

HOW IT WORKS

1 Apply

Search by property address, validate your identity, and select application type. Fill out the application form, upload all required documents, and select a date for your required C of O

2 DOB Reviews Your Application

DOB will review your application, and may request additional information with you. After review has been successfully completed, a draft C of O will be created for your approval.

3 Pay Fee and Download C of O

Once you approve the draft C of O, a payment request will be created. After you pay the fee, you may download the final version of your C of O.

What is Our Why?

We wanted to assist our customers with a more transparent process flow, so we developed a digital submission process of all Certificate of Occupancy Application types to:

- Create a User-Friendly Platform
- Increase Transparency
- Establish Predictability

Application Process - Change of Ownership

Application Process - All Other Types

What is a C of O?

The purpose of a Certificate of Occupancy (C of O) is to ensure that the use of a building, structure or land in the District of Columbia conforms to the Zoning Regulations (DCMR Title 11) and the DC Construction Code (DCMR Title 12A), and the Green Building Act.

Per DCMR title 12A Section 110.3—no person can use a building, structure or land in the District of Columbia for any purpose other than a single-family dwelling, until a valid C of O has been issued.

What are you using this building/structure/land for?

What are the types of C of O applications?

There are six (6) types of C of O applications:

- Ownership change
- Use change
- Occupant load change
- Revision
- Temporary occupancy
- New building/New construction

For new buildings, there are three (3) C of O subsets: conditional, completion of core and shell, and establishment of a new occupancy.

The new certificate of occupancy platform, Certifi, will guide you through each of these application types.
